Each love story is unique... and deserves special celebration.

It is not surprising that organization of a wedding often resembles maneuvers of a quite big size: dozens of issues and decisions to be made: from the design of invitations, through all meals, ending at the color of flowers. But there is no more important element at the wedding reception than music.

Because who, in fact, after asking: "How did you enjoy?" analyzes starters, room decor or color of newlyweds' car? What really matters are: good music, crazy fun and dancing until dawn. Therefore, on the stage you should have a professional person.

After 10 years of working as a DJ and performing hundreds of events, I know that my biggest challenge is to ensure a positive climate for all guests. The occasion does not really matter. If it is a club, banquet or a family wedding, what really counts is only one moment – when everyone is already on the dance floor and wants to express his/her good state of mind. As a mood alchemist I know how to prepare the best mixture of sounds that will move everyone. A pinch of rhythm, a little disco, a handful of vinyl. To heat up the atmosphere, I mix together smoothly all the ingredients bringing the audience to a boil.

Giving you a guarantee of a successful event, I offer professional service using my own high quality sound and lighting. I optimize music and fun to different tastes, playing a wide variety of music genres - from classics to the latest compositions in such a way that music joins, not divides, generations.

I especially recommend my specialty - „Video with music mixing“, in which, using my base of several thousand music videos, I create audio-visual show, which engages double...

Please feel free to contact me! I will prepare an individual offer for you with clear pricing that will positively surprise you.
